

1

Customer Support Portal Requirements details

User profile tasks

Search for a given provider or seeker and view complete user profile. That includes user portfolio and supporting documents.

Lock / Unlock account login access of provider and seeker

Disable/Enable provider profile

Mark a profile for Deletion

Provider applications

Review and approve/reject provider applications

Program Management

Edit/Update/Delete a Program

Queries/Reports

Display a list of seekers who joined the portal between two given dates. Display their first name, last name, user id, email id, joining date. Provide a count for the given output.

Display a list of providers who got upgraded from seeker to provider between two given dates. Also display the count of number individuals got upgraded. Display their first name, last name, user id, email id, joining date and upgraded date

Display a list of providers who published new programs in between the given dates. Display their firstname, lastname, user id, email id and the count of programs that are created.

Display a list of programs that are created in between two given dates. Display the provider first name, last name, provider user id, program id, program name, enrollment size and how many are enrolled Display a list of seekers who enrolled into any programs in between two given dates.

Generate 4 reports as per the attached word document.

Messages

Send/Receive messages to any user, both providers and seekers from support account

Email Support

Email to any provider or seeker from support account

Review emails in support@talent-share.com and respond.

Administrator Portal Requirements details

In addition to all the above, Administrator should be able to create/update/delete/lock customer support user accounts.